Dear Traveller!

Welcome to Budapest!

Thanks for planning to join our tours.

ORIGINAL WALKING TOUR AND AFTERNOON WALKING TOUR

SCHEDULE DETAILS:

Starts daily: at 10:30A.M. & 2.30P.M.

Meeting point: Vörösmarty tér (square) – last stop of M1 metro line at the lion fountain outside Gerbeaud Café building.

Conclusion point: Matthias Church and Fisherman's Bastion area on Castle Hill.

Length: 2,5-3 hours – covers about two and a half miles (3.5 kilometers)

No tours on: Dec.24th at 2.30PM, Dec.25th; Jan.1st, Aug. 20th at 2.30PM.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Physical requirements: Medium. Not too hard, not too soft. Please expect a bit of physical activity up the Castle hill stairs, but nothing overly challenging.

What to bring: Normal shoes, water and a hat (a must in summer, when it's 25-35C) plus layered warm dress (a must in winter, it can be -10C - +5C)

Local contact: Office phone number: +36209605295.

Safety: Like in most metropolises pickpockets are an existing threat, therefore please take care of your belongings during your walking tours.

Cost: All free tours operate on a voluntary tip basis. This means you pay what you want, if you feel the guide deserves it. This ensures the guide has incentive to deliver a really really good tour. Our tour guides have to work extra hard to earn your appreciation. You name the price.

Disclaimer:

By agreeing to participate in our tours, our guests accept that they are fully responsible for any injury, damage, loss or theft sustained by them during the course of the tour, and by joining the tour, the customer waives all rights to make any claim against the tour guide and/or the operators of the Free Budapest Walking Tours in connection with any such events. Accordingly, the Free Budapest Walking Tours does not accept any responsibility nor does it assume any liability for such events. The Free Budapest Walking Tours reserves the right to deny participation of any individual in the tour, for any reason whatsoever, should our guide feel this is necessary prior to or during the course of the tour.

Looking forward to meeting you!
